THE ADVANCE GUARD.

INDICATIONS

Are that this year's crop of insects will beat anything on record. Scientists have discovered that an entirely new variety are due to visit this locality during the summer. The creature is said to be a cross between a Kansas grasshopper and last year's kissing bug. The advance guard was seen here yesterday and gives promise of being the warmest thing that ever "came over the pike."

Prepare to resist the invaders by providing your windows and doors with SCREENS. We supply them ready-made, and the prices are so low that no family can afford to do without 'em.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Items of Interest Contributed by Our Country Correspondents.

ORANGEBURG, May 6th.—Hord Long was the guest of Dr. Hord last Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas J. Hordlin was sick during the past week.

Dr. John King, of Mayville, was visiting friends here the past week, leaving for home Tuesday morning.

Prof. L. C. Grimes and Postmaster Grant Wilson took several wild and woolly North Fork fish Wednesday.

Road Superintendent Luttrell was out last week measuring stone, preparatory to paying the breakers.

The orchards on the adjacent heights are bouquets of beautiful blossoms. Fruit prospects were never better. Jack Frost, mind your eye, and give us the go-by.

Mrs. Lydia Bramel, of Paris, is here visiting the old home place. Joseph Bramel will come down from Paris to vote at the primary, when they will return home.

Grant Wilson and son Duke paid a business visit to Cincinnati the past week.

John and Charles Grant are known as the most expert sheep shearers in the county.

Master D. Grant, son of Charles and Alice Grant, was visiting friends in the 'burg Sunday. He reported fishing first-class at the mill dam near his home.

Rain is badly needed, as the ground is so baked that in many instances proper preparations for planting cannot be made.

Charles Roe was first in the field Saturday shearing his sheep.

There is talk of a reservoir on a neighboring hill, with pipes to distribute water throughout the village for fire protection. Whether the plan is feasible or not will be found out later on.

Dr. Hord's fast horse gained several seconds on his former record the past week.

Mama Collis will light his store with three of the air-pressure gasoline lamps.

Gardening is progressing slowly. The ground a foot below the surface is cold and damp.

Charles Calvert removed his engine from the Collis tract, where he has been sawing for months past, to the Wilson log yard in the 'burg Friday afternoon. He began sawing Tuesday. He will have work all summer in the immediate neighborhood.

Uncle Dave Bullock killed the biggest, fattest, longest blacksnake last week you ever heard of. This is a fact; if you don't believe it go down and see his skeleton lying on a stump.

George Sedden has a shepherd dog which can drive cows better than a boy could, if he wanted to. When she and her little one were brought to the store from the home place, nearly five miles away, she disappeared one night, and puppy likewise, and was found in the old familiar stable with a downcast, deprecating look, wagging her tail, with puppy cuddled by her side.

It is a very noticeable and unpleasant fact that in the forests of oak timber hereabouts nearly every one of the trees is dead at the top. Limbs that have been broken by storms have allowed moisture to percolate through and in some cases render a great portion of the trees useless for lumber. It is a foregone conclusion that the sooner they are cut down the better quality of lumber the owner will have.

The acoustic properties of the new Methodist Church are very bad. The sharp pitch of the roof and unusual height of the ceiling allows the voices of the speakers to rise too high and reverberate so as to make the words at times unintelligible. A sounding board above the pulpit, throwing the sound lower down would remedy this defect.

Uncle Billy Roe has sold an acre lot on Mt. Carmel pike, near the 'burg, to Peter Moody blacksmith, for $100. Mr. Moody is now building a house and shop. That's business! Because folks are anxiously seeking locations here is no reason why prices of lots should be raised beyond the reach of many. If you have a tract of land adjacent to our village, sell a portion in lots to bonafide builders at reasonable prices. There is no surer way of increasing the value of the remainder of your land.

A wave of religious enthusiasm sweeping all before it has settled on our erstwhile quiet village. Mrs. Harrod, a small, unassuming lady, seems to be doing good work. She holds services afternoons and evenings in the Methodist Church. Citizens of this place and farmer folk for miles around have attended every meeting she has held. A survey loaded with Mayville folks was out Friday. She is a very fluent speaker, with the contents of the Bible at her tongue's end, and seems to be terribly in earnest. But the climax of each meeting is what draws curiosity seekers. She dances a jig, waltzes around, and ends in a sudden fall, remaining in a trance profound and deathlike for hours. While in this state of lethargy she does not seem to breathe; her eyes are wide open and fixed. When she falls the congregation is dismissed, only a few of the brethren and sisters remaining until she returns to consciousness, which she does in a state of collapse and is taken home in a buggy. She certainly possesses a mysterious power which none of her hearers have as yet been able to fathom. One man remarked after the usual denouncement that she was like the cow that gave a full bucket of rich milk and then kicked it over. She is from Ohio and according to her story a former Catholic. Her husband secured a divorce from her because of her religious enthusiasm. He retained possession of her two children. Unable to obtain possession of her little ones she prayed that they might die, and they did shortly afterward. She sells copies of her photograph at each meeting to aid in paying her expenses. At Mt. Carmel she was presented with a purse of $100 and also with $150 at Tollesboro. It is said she says in her experience that her style of religion was distasteful to all of her relations. It is said by those who have heard her, that she went home from church and was seized with religious ecstasy on her way, shouting, dancing and falling along the street. When she arrived at home breathless, she threw herself at her grandmother's feet and asked her if she didn't want to get religion. "Yes, child, but not the kind you have," was the answer. Some irreverent persons go so far as to say that at services which she held in a large barn in the mountains, she danced clear around the room exhibiting wonderful grace and agility. A stalwart mountaineer in the audience it is said, remarked: "If she does that a way again tomorrow evening she won't be without a partner." Sure enough the next evening she repeated her terpsichorean evolutions and as promised he joined her and danced with her. She doubtless possesses hypnotic powers which gives her control over persons of less nervous strength than herself.

PATRIOTIC BLOSSOMS.

The red bud and the apple tree, I said,
Together they're a pretty sight;
The red bud with its flowers of red,
The apple tree with blossoms snow white.
And on the grass green ground below,
The violet blue uplifts her face;
The three tints make a goodly show,
A combination full of grace.
Red, white and blue, time-tried and true,
Our country's emblem grand
Right here we find, deftly outlined
By Nature's cunning hand.

1,000,000 WOMEN RELIEVED

Reports received show that Wine of Cardui has brought permanent relief to 1,000,000 suffering women in the last few years. Because of Wine of Cardui, thousands of sufferers, seemingly on the way to premature graves, are now healthy women taking an active interest in the duties of life. Mrs. Mitchell was declining in health when Wine of Cardui "performed a miraculous cure" in her case. She suffered terribly with the agonies of falling of the womb, leucorrhoea and profuse menstruation. The weekly appearance of the menses for two months sapped her vitality until she was little better than a physical wreck. Her nervous system gave way under the terrible pain and aggravation. Then came the trial of Wine of Cardui and the cure. Mrs. Mitchell's experience ought to commend Wine of Cardui to suffering women in words of burning eloquence. The Wine is within the reach of all. Woman who try it are relieved. You can get as much benefit as Mrs. Mitchell received. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui. Send to the laboratory for the medicine if he tenders you a substitute.

WINE OF CARDUI

South Gaston, N. C., May 29, 1899.
Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught have performed a miraculous cure in my case. I have been a great sufferer from falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and my menses came every week for two months and became very painful. I was in a bad condition. My husband induced me to try Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught, and now I have no pain. The leucorrhoea has disappeared and now I am in perfect health. Mrs. WILLIE MITCHELL.
